

The LORD has sent me to bind up the BROKENHEARTED, to proclaim freedom

for the CAPTIVES
and release from darkness for the PRISONERS.

Isaiah 61:1, NIV

AVAILABLE FOR SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Want us to come speak at your upcoming small group or event?

Amy, founder of Anchor Her, shares her story and ways to help others as she speaks at churches, small groups, organizations and various events.

Topics you will hear about:

- Jail Ministry
- Domestic Violence
- Addiction
- Mentoring
- Testimonials
- Beauty for Ashes Message

We hope to share our message to help empower women at your next upcoming event. Schedule Amy today!

CONTACT US

Amy Mitchell

amymitchell@anchorher.com 816-529-8867
anchorher.com

ANCHORHER

our mission is to EMBRACE

women with the love of Jesus

EMPOWER

women by the Word of God

& IGNITE

change in women as they find new community in churches,
support groups and mentors

OUR STORY

Amy Mitchell is the founder of Anchor Her Ministry. At the age of 15 Amy had received Christ and was baptized but didn't know how to walk out a Christian lifestyle. She went to church with her grandparents on Christmas and Easter and always felt this amazing peace and love there, even in the midst of a dysfunctional life.

By the age of 19 Amy had become a single mother on government assistance, facing a 5 year jail sentence and losing custody of her daughter Mariah. By the grace of God she got probation and did not go to prison or lose custody of her daughter.

At the age of 24 Amy was injured and taken to Safe Home Domestic Violence Shelter. At the shelter Amy was connected with a mentor by the name of Pam. This was a pivotal point in Amy's life. Through the guidance, encouragement and compassion from her mentor, she was able to find a home for her and her children as well as stable employment.

As years went on, Amy learned how to walk out a Christian lifestyle and what it meant to have a true intimate relationship with the Lord. Looking back at her life she can see the footprints in the sand where Jesus carried her and how God truly does work all things together for the good of those who love the Lord (Romans 8:28).

Today Amy and her daughter Mariah volunteer their time at the Johnson County Adult Residential Center as well as various jails and shelters, loving women back to life with the gospel and the word of their testimony. They also offer monthly support groups, one-on-one mentoring and quarterly events and retreats.

Amy's life calling is to show women the love of Christ by taking the broken pieces of her life and showing them beauty from ashes.

WE SHOW WOMEN THE LOVE OF GOD THROUGH:

- jail visitation
- monthly support groups
- one-on-one mentoring
- quarterly events and retreats

BE INVOLVED

BECOME A MENTOR

Relationship and new community are essential in the re-entry process. In our mentorship program we would like our volunteers to come alongside women to be a friend, encourager, disciple and coach.

Ecclesiastes 4:12 says "A cord of three strands is not easily broken."

SHARE YOUR TESTIMONY

You can speak at events, retreats or AnchorHer's weekly life coaching at the Johnson County Residential Center.

"Your story could be the key that unlocks someone else's prison."

PARTNER WITH US

Partner with us in prayer or join our team by going into jails, juvenile detention centers and shelters.

FINANCIALLY SUPPORT OUR MISSION

Give online at www.anchorher.com or Make checks payable to:

Perception Funding
PO Box 480213
Kansas City, MO 64148
Memo line: AnchorHer

